CANNONS' BOOM

Announces the Arrival of Dr. Nansen at Christiana.

The Arctic Explorer Given a National Reception by the Norwegians.

Along the Shores the Building and Ship-ping Were Frotusely Decorated.—King Oscar Confers Upon Him the Decora-tion of the Grand Cross of St. Olaf.

Curistiana, Norway, Sept. 10.-Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer who re-Our Bargain Hunters Cently returned from an expedition in search of the north pole, arrived here Wednesday afternoon on his vessel, the Fram, and was given a great national reception. The Fram was met by a small naval squadron and a fleet of 70 passenger steamers and escorted up the Fjord. All along the shores the build-ings and shipping were profusely dec-orated with flags and bunting and as the explorer's vessel passed the cannons of the war ships boomed and the crowds which had gathered along the banks cheered again and again. Dr. Nansen proceeded to the royal palace, where he was given a hearty welcome by King Oscar and the crown prince. Wednesday evening a state banquet was given in his bonor. The king conferred upon Dr. Nansen the decoration of the Grand Cross of

HOBART ACCEPTS.

He Writes a Letter to the Notification

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 10 .- Garret A. Hobart's letter, accepting the republican nomination for vice president of the United States, was made public Wednesday.

He expresses himself as well pleased with the platform adopted by the St.

Louis convention.

The platform declarations in reference to the money question express clearly and unmistakably the attitude of the republican party as to this supremely important subject. We stand unqualifiedly for honesty in finance, and the permanent adjustment of our monetary system, in the multifarious activities of trade and commerce, to the existing gold standard of value. We hold that every dollar of currency issued by the United States, whether of gold, silver or paper, must be worth a dollar in gold, whether in the pocket of the man who toils for his daily bread, in the vault of the savings bank which holds his deposits, or in the exchanges of the world.

The dollar of our country, whether of gold or silver, should be of the full value of 100 cents, and by so much as any dollar is worth less than this in the market by precisely that sum will some one be defrauded.

"This country can not afford to give its sanction to wholesale spoliation. It must hold fast to its integrity. It must still encourage thrift in all proper ways. It must not only educate its children to honor and respect the flag, but it should inculcate fidelity to the obligations of personal and national honor as well. Both these great principles should hereafter be taught in the common schools of the land, and the lesson impressed upon those who are the voters of to-day and those who are to become the inheritors of sovereign power in this republic, that it is neither wise patriotic nor safe to make political platforms the mediums of assault upon property, the peace of society and upon civilization itself.

The platform of the republican tional convention states the party position concerning other questions than those herein referred to. These, while at the present time of subordinate importance, should not be overlooked. The republican party has always been the defender of the rights of American citizenship, as against all aggressions whatever, whether at home or abroad. It has, to the extent of its power, defended those rights, and hedged them about with law. Regarding the ballot as the expression and preserve its purity and integrity. In our foreign relations it labored to secure to every man entitled to the shelter of our flag the fullest exercise of his rights consistent with international obligation. If it should be restored to rulership, it would infuse needed vigor into our re lations with powers which have manifested contempt and disregard, not only of American citizenship, but of humanity itself. The republican party has always stood for the protection of the American home. It has simed to secure it in the enjoyment of all the blessings of remunerated industry, of moral culture, and of favorable physical environment. It was the party which instituted the policy of free homestals, and which holds now that this policy should be re-established, and that the public jands yet vacant and subject to entry in any part of our national territory, should be preserved against corporate aggression as homes for the people. It realizes that the safety of the state lies in the multiplication of households, and the strengthening of that sentiment of which the virtuous home is the best and the truest embodiment; and it will aim to dignify and enlarge by all proper legislation this element of security.
